

HENLEY FESTIVAL

Wednesday 9th – Saturday 12th July 2008

Recently dubbed 'the summer's Greatest Party', Henley Festival has become a highlight of the English summer season. Henley comes alive, presenting a glittering array of music, comedy, visual arts and dance. With world class artists performing in an open air setting, breathtaking musical firework spectacular that lightens up the river Thames, what finer way is there to entertain your special guests on a warm summer's evening.

You will be treated to a party bag full of events throughout the evening with a diverse range of performers cropping up in the most unexpected places and costumes.

A spectacular line-up is planned for the Festival in 2008, including performances by Lesley Garrett, The Proclaimers, Alfie Boe, Natasha Marsh, The Gipsy Kings, Hayley Westenra, and many more.

La Scala, the event's premier and most prestigious hospitality venue, is located in the heart of the Festival; Adjacent to the grandstand and surrounded by beautiful decor. This stylish hospitality facility offers a perfect atmosphere to entertain friends, colleagues and guests.

In addition to this wonderful location, you will experience an exclusively designed menu by Albert Roux, complemented by Laurent-Perrier Champagne and wine. Albert Roux himself will oversee the preparation and delivery of culinary excellence as you wine and dine the evening away at your leisure.
